ARTICLE I - PURPOSES OF ORGANIZATION

SECTION 1. Purposes. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. It is filed as a 501-3-c of the Internal Revenue Code. The Corporation is formed for the following purposes which include but is not limited to.

- A. To promote the sport of youth rodeo at the state and national level.
- B. To conduct youth educational programs and skill development in the sport of rodeo, including but not limited to, roping, riding, shooting, and pageantry.
- C. To educate youth and family members on animal welfare and good husbandry practices as it relates to agricultural and rodeo activities.
- D. To offer opportunities for scholarship and continuing education.
- E. To comply with and maintain the standards as set forth in the National High School Rodeo Associations (hereinafter "NHSRA") Rules, By-Laws, and Constitution. If anything is not covered in the NJHSRA By-Laws, we as an association will adhere to the NHSRA Rules and By-Laws.

SECTION 2. Individuals Benefiting from Purposes. The Corporation is organized to serve students and their families who are residents of the State of New Jersey; or who have determined to transfer their membership from another state and have gone through the proper channels in their state of residence and the National Office. The Corporation does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, creed, nationality, or religious belief.

SECTION 3. Dissolutions Statement. When the Corporation ceases to operate as stated in Sections 1 & 2 above, all assets will be turned over to the National High School Rodeo Association of Denver, Colorado. No assets will be dispersed to any of the members of the Corporation.

SECTION 4. Conflict of Interest Statement. The Corporation will not automatically purchase any items or services from companies owned or operated by members of the Corporation. When outside venues or services are needed, the Corporation will receive multiple bids and accept the bid as voted on by the majority of the Board of Directors. If one of the board members is also bidding on a service or venue, they will not have a vote in that decision.
